

Middle School Teacher, Full-time salaried position

The Waldorf School of St. Louis is currently seeking an inspired, enthusiastic teacher for our engaging and vibrant combined Middle School Class, beginning with the 2021-22 academic year. The ideal candidate will look forward to joining a growing school community and teaching in a newly acquired and freshly renovated campus space. The Waldorf School of St. Louis offers a comprehensive Waldorf curriculum from Preschool through Grade 8 with specialty subjects including: French, German, Handwork, Movement, Strings, and Choir.

Ideal candidates will have completed Waldorf teacher training. Candidates who have completed a Bachelor's degree and are currently in Waldorf training will also be considered. In addition to classroom teaching, the Middle School faculty member will also attend faculty meetings, prepare student reports, meet and work with current and prospective parents, assist with festivals, and join in committee work. A full job description is available upon request.

The Waldorf School of St. Louis is located in Webster Groves, a historic and thriving suburb of St. Louis, within easy reach of abundant natural, cultural, and recreational resources. The many neighborhoods of St. Louis provide a rich array of amenities where individuals and families from all backgrounds will feel at home. St. Louis is fortunate to have a thriving Anthroposophical Community and an Anthroposophical Physician who is Board Certified in Family Medicine and Homeotherapeutics and a member of our Board of Trustees. We look forward to meeting candidates who are moved to join a community with an active parent body, committed board, strong administration, and collaborative faculty. Learn more about our school at waldorfstl.org.

Interested candidates should email an autobiographical statement, resume, and references to: employment@waldorfstl.org.