

Foundation Studies in Anthroposophy ENCOUNTER Programs

3 Locations: Thornhill, Guelph and Halton

IN-PERSON Foundation Studies in Anthroposophy Encounter programs starting in September are now being offered in three Ontario locations. In Thornhill the program will take place weekly on Saturday mornings, in Guelph, weekly on Monday nights, and in Halton it will be monthly on Friday evening and Saturday on the third weekend of the month.

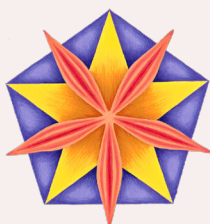

Who is it for? Foundation Studies is for anyone who wants to learn about anthroposophy, explore the arts from an anthroposophical perspective, or lay the groundwork for becoming a Waldorf teacher. Of course Foundation Studies can also be a preparation for other anthroposophical work in fields such as biodynamic farming, medicine, art therapy, social development, counseling, sciences, etc.
