

We are looking for you!

The Waldorf Phuket in Thailand is seeking a Waldorf-trained and native English-speaker

- Early Childhood/Kindergarten teacher
- Grade 1 and 2 teacher
- Lower Primary teacher (grade 3-4)
- Upper Primary teacher (grade 5-7)

For the next 2024/2025 academic year.

Overview of Position

This position requires a deep understanding and grounding in the foundations of Waldorf education and the ability to bring the curriculum in support of each child, their families, and the entire class.

Responsibilities

- Plan and teach all areas of early childhood curriculum according to Waldorf pedagogy
- Create and maintain a clean and orderly classroom space and common areas, including outdoors
- Collaboration with other faculty and staff regarding admissions and student care
- Participate in non-teaching duties including weekly meeting attendance, outreach events, committee work
- Actively engage in healthy parent relations through parent-teacher conferences, parent education, and regular class meetings

Requirements

- Bachelor's degree and a Certificate of Completion in Waldorf Training.
- At least two years of relevant teaching experience
- Understanding of Waldorf childhood development
- Understanding and willingness to work out of Anthroposophy
- Ability to work collaboratively with other faculty and staff to support the mission of Waldorf Phuket

Skills

- Ability to work well with young children, parents, and colleagues
- Excellent communication processes and skills
- Reliable and punctual, well-organized and efficient

About Waldorf Phuket

We are a small and growing Waldorf-inspired school with outdoor classrooms, where children learn to love themselves, others, and the earth as we engage the head, heart, and hands of each child.

How to Apply

Please send a brief one-page letter of interest, resume, and three professional references, including phone numbers and e-mail addresses to info@waldorfphuket.com